

Ida Public Library Mission Statement

"To build and support the community by providing a variety of library materials, services, and activities for the multi-generational, multi-cultural population to meet their educational, recreational, and informational needs."